

Crying Time

Magnum

You're old enough to stand and face the truth
Through all this crying
Has a little bit of kindness shaken loose
So you keep on trying, keep on

Your eyes are like the windows to your soul
Through all this dying
As adventures shared by many young and old
So you keep on trying

Till the tears come falling down

It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
Those tears don't lie
Those tears you cry
Those tears you cry

However things uncertain might appear
Don't walk it, blindness
And a single word of magic in your ear
Lights up inside us, light up

On many nights your step is strong and sure
So close behind us
Cried out for help from many distant shore
Soon reminds us

And the tears come falling down, falling down

It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
Those tears come falling down
It's crying time
Those tears don't lie
Those tears you cry

It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
It's crying time
Those tears don't lie
It's crying time
