Doors to Nowhere

Up every day Took my clothes off the chair Poured out a drink From the old Frigidaire Some magazines By the fire, never touched Shiny red step Always cleaned, always brushed

Now those days are gone Gone for us all They won't return Once there was a time You may recall

Over the wasteland The full moon would rise Hot summer nights Put the stars in our eyes Caught in the storm Between thunder and rain Ran down the hillside Like we were insane

Behind doors to nowhere We hide our childhood dreams We pass time without care Deceive when we're not there

The sun blinds pulled down Made the walls tangerine Dancers in white Playing their tambourines Slow dusty trains Disappeared in the haze Coaches arrived At the crowded cafes

Now those days are gone Gone for us all They won't return Once there was a time You may recall

Over the wasteland The full moon would rise Hot summer nights Put the stars in our eyes Caught in the storm Between thunder and rain Ran down the hillside Like we were insane

Behind doors to nowhere We hide our childhood dreams We pass time without care Deceive when we're not there
