

Endless Love

Magnum

You're a believer of the wayward call
Heavens above, what comes with that?
No crystal gazing on an empty shore
Don't dip your eyes, don't turn your back

You make no promise when you break their hearts
Your magic power turns to dust
You're off and running long before it starts
That's what you do, stay untouched

No endless love
Can't find no endless love
No endless love
I can't find no endless love tonight

I've turned the corner and there's no one there
You've peeled your shadow off the wall
Now I've crossed the border and so please beware
I'm never sure of you at all
Not any more

No endless love
No endless love

No endless love
Can't find no endless love
No endless love
When there's lying, dying alone tonight
No endless love
