

Live 'Til You Die

Magnum

When you think that heaven is ablaze
Deep beneath your feet
You don't have to really be afraid
Just think no retreat

You hide it when you cut the thread to life
The secret is out
You're walking down the highway of lost dreams
Yeah, and there's no doubt

You're going to live till you die
Counting the thoughts you put by
Sacred the one orphan child
Destined to collide
Always cast aside

When the barefoot prophets take the stand
Filling up your head
Gold and purple treasures in their hand
Everything misread

The starlight on the shadow garden falls
And there's no escape
You're broken and there's nowhere you can hide
No, there's no mistake

You're going to live till you die
Diamonds that spilled from your eye
Outrageous stories you told
Made my blood run cold
Faceless to behold

What's the price? Sold again
You don't feel so good
Can't explain, if you could
You don't think you should

You're going to live till you die
Counting the thoughts you put by
Sacred the one orphan child
Destined to collide
Always cast aside

You're going to live till you die
Diamonds that spilled from your eye
Outrageous stories you told
Made my blood run cold
Faceless to behold

You're going to live till you die
Counting the thoughts you put by
Sacred the one orphan child
Destined to collide
Always cast aside

You're going to live till you die
