

Walking the Straight Line

Magnum

Love don't come easy
So don't treat it light
Remember there's two sides
You'll make it all right
No magic potion
There's no way to tell
Could be like heaven
Might be like hell, baby

You're tempted to turn 'round
Comes to us all
Moments of pleasure
You're bound to recall
One bad decision
That's all it will take
Something you treasured
To something you break

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you, babe
Walking the straight line
That's all that you've got to do, oh, yeah
Baby

Love don't come easy
So don't treat it light
Remember there's two sides
You'll make it all right
There's no magic potion
There's no way to tell
Could be like heaven
Might be like hell

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you, babe
Walking the straight line
That's all that you've got to do
Babe, babe, baby

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you, babe
Walking the straight line
That's all that you've got to do

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you, babe
Walking the straight line
That's all that you've got to do

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you, babe
Walking the straight line
That's all that you've got to do

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you, baby
Don't go having a good time

That's all that you've got to do

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you

Walking the straight line
Hope it's the same with you
