

Without Love

Magnum

Never in Shadows
So you got nothing to lose

Where were the heroes?
No-one to call the accused

You can paint the darkness
Any colours that you need

Cause ya know ya know ya know ya know ya know that
Maybe maybe maybe baby won't succeed

Without Love
You've got nothing at all
Without Love
Without Love

Without Love
You've got no-one to call
Without Love
Without Love

Looking up skyward
Taking in what you can't own

Still it just feels good
When you can work the unknown

You can talk forever
Saying nothing's what you need

Cause ya know ya know ya know ya know ya know that
Maybe maybe maybe baby won't succeed

Without Love
You've got nothing at all
Without Love
Without Love

Without Love
You've got no-one to call
Without Love
Without Love

Without Love
You've got nothing at all
Without Love
Without Love

Without Love
You've got no-one to call
Without Love
Without Love

Without Love
You've got nothing at all
Without Love

Without Love

Without Love

You've got no-one to call

Without Love
