

There's nothing left of you.
so when I left the loop,
what were you trying to prove?
You're skin and bones crumbling.
But now the cloud are parting.

With blue skies and endless heights,
so just fill your lungs and breathe.

Slow it down, just wait.
Take some time to question life
while you're young and learning.
Take it slow, just stay.
I know it's hard but moving fast,
you're going to miss the journey.

Death embrace me, Izanami take me.
Life embrace me, Izanagi take me home.

Take me home.
The earth is coming to life again.

With blue skies and endless heights,
so face east to the sunrise.
This is my resting place, inside my mind.
you know it's fine to take your time,
so just fill your lungs and breathe.

Slow it down, just wait.
Take some time to question life
while you're young and learning.
Take it slow, just stay.
I know it's hard but moving fast,
you're going to miss the journey.

Death embrace me, Izanami take me.
Life embrace me, Izanagi take me home.

You're skin and bones and crumbling.
Just know your clock is ticking. It's moving so fast, and all the clouds are parting. It's beaming with light,
so take my hand and trust me,
because we are going to see the sunrise.
If it's the last thing we do tonight.
