

Little Brown Bear

Malika Ayane

I drink some water, please
No whisky no champagne
I am a little brown bear

The town is for me a shock
As this smile now on you
What stranger what you say, say

But I see things
That you can't see in your world
That you can't see in your world

I come from some old form
Of sweet intelligence
No bow no reverence

I drink some water, please
No whisky no champagne
I am a little brown bear
I am a little brown bear
I am a little brown bear

I see the moon
So enigmatic for you
Fireball of honey for me mmm

I drink some water, please
No whisky no champagne
I am a little brown bear
I drink some water, please
No whisky no champagne
I am a little brown bear
I am a little brown bear
I am a little brown bear
