

Beggars

Mallory Knox

The Devil's been stuck in my brain
And he's been living there seventeen days
He said that I can't do better
But I know I'll get better
I'll do anything to feel something

The voices they are loudest at night
And they're so loud that they are haunting my mind
Oh but it makes him unsettled to know I'll get better
If I find that something deep within

See I can't find a way out my mind

Breathe in, I'm coming to get you
You need me, but I don't know how to reach you
You know I'm gonna be the one
(But I don't wanna be the one)
But I don't wanna be the one

I'm begging him to push me away
'Cause all his talk will only drive me insane
I'm hoping just to sort it someday
And then it's just me and myself all the way

So try sleeping with a stranger in your home
Who spends time banging on your bedroom walls
And loiters in the pitch black, letting you know that You're, not alone

See I can't find a way out my mind

Breathe in, I'm coming to get you
You need me, but I don't know how to reach you
You know I'm gonna be the one
(But I don't wanna be the one)
But I don't wanna be the one

(I'm coming to get you I'm coming to get you)
I know I'm gonna be the one, but I don't wanna be the one
(Coming to get you, I'm coming to get you)
I know I'm gonna be the one, but I don't wanna be the one

See I can't find the way out of my mind
(Cause I don't wanna be the one, I don't wanna be the one)
The devil has his claws too deep inside
(Cause I don't wanna be the one, I don't wanna be the one)

See I can't find the way out of my mind
(I'm coming to get you, I'm coming to get you
I don't wanna be the one, I don't wanna be the one)
The devil has his claws too deep inside
(I'm coming to get you, I'm coming to get you
I don't wanna be the one, I don't wanna be the one)
