

Tokyo Drift

Mallrat

And we're never on time,
Laughing at the wrong time
Laughing for a long time
I think its gonna be alright

And we're never on time,
Laughing at the wrong time
Laughing at the wrong thing
Laughing for a long time
I think its gonna be alright

We don't talk much but I hope that you're well
Let's drive to the beach and play songs from 2012
I've been meaning to text you for 7 or 8 days
Get back from your vacay,
Meet me at HJ's
We had like a million great days, at least
And thats only since grade eight, I mean
HSM like 2006 I take all the blame for this Tokyo drift.

Weeks were getting super long and I was getting bored
Now Monday doesn't even feel like Monday anymore
Everyone was always wrong, I'm glad that we ignored
Now Monday doesn't even feel like Monday anymore.

And we're never on time,
Laughing at the wrong time
Laughing for a long time
I think its gonna be alright

And we're never on time,
Laughing at the wrong time
Laughing at the wrong thing
Laughing for a long time
I think its gonna be alright
