

Inner Iggy

Man Man

One day you're king of the mountain
Next day you're a head in an ice chest
A picture window
On a brick facade

And you hid your dreams in a shoebox
Underneath a life of hard knocks
Tsunami came along
And kicked you into the garbage

Arigato glass stilettos
And you're dancing no strings
Arigato glass stilettos
Skipping like a roman candle
Arigato glass stilettos
And you're dancing no strings attached
Arigato glass stilettos

One day you're queen of the jungle
Next day you're fed to a snake pit
Your doppelganger has a missing arm

And you hid your dreams in a shoebox
Underneath a life of hard knocks
Tsunami came along
And kicked you into the garden

Arigato glass stilettos
And you're dancing no strings
Arigato glass stilettos
Skipping like a roman candle
Arigato glass stilettos
And you're dancing no strings attached
Arigato glass stilettos

You gotta find your inner Iggy
You gotta find your inner Iggy
You gotta find your inner Iggy
You gotta ride your inner Iggy
And all I ever wanted
Was for you to kick my heart in baby
