1000 Promises Of Pain

Man Must Die

Look back and you will see An endless reign Focus on all that's real They distort the truth to Keep us blind Invest and you will be saved Every dollar spent Gets you closer to the gates And everything will be just fine Your faith a plague in my eyes I am the doubt That thorn in your side Perverted values, your narrow minded fascist scriptures Our right to question is what makes us human Doubting, you can't stop Doubting, behold the greatest hoax A cancer Your faith a plague in my eyes I am the doubt That thorn in your side Destroy the teachings of Christ In me I trust with my eyes open wide A thousand promises of pain I am not a slave Like the sheep that follow you I don't need your false Messiah You're a fool if You think that He's there for you Preying on weak minds Lambs led to the slaughter Pedophiles in the Vatican Take the payoff Keep your mouth shut Tell me how can I Take the hand of Christ Knowing what I know Burn the bastard A thousand promises of pain Where was He when you needed Him? An empty promise Burns right through you Take the Bible, fucking rip it up Tear it up A dead religion built on fear and greed It must stop No second coming Fuck your God
