

Broken People

MAN WITH A MISSION

Standing alone in the graveyard
Nothing is carved on their stone
Loading the gun for your next start
Cause you're not finished and you're out for some more

Take them all down take them to the ground
For your perfect revenge in the endless circle
Take them all down take them to the ground
For your perfect revenge to this ruthless world

We want out we're going nowhere
Nothing is right in what I see
Cracks me up when you're believing everything's so easy

Give me one good reason to not end this all

It's time to play the game
It's now your turn to burn them down
Yeah you goddamn broken people
Spin the table as the flames surround
So see ya
Yeah you goddamn broken people

Everyday you talk about the same old brag
You're just another king on your rotten throne
What else fucks is you don't even know
So we're here for your service
Adios amigos!

Take them all down take them to the ground
For your perfect revenge in the endless circle
Take them all down take them to the ground
For your perfect revenge to this ruthless world

We want out we're going nowhere
Nothing is quite like what it seems
Cracks me up you're still believing everything's so easy

Give me one good reason to not end this all

It's time to play the game
It's now your turn to burn them down
Yeah you goddamn broken people
Spin the table as the flames surround
So see ya
Yeah you goddamn broken people

Day by day we try to recall and stall
Yeah you goddamn broken people know
Yeah now you goddamn broken people know

So let the judgement come and see what will become

It's time to play the game
It's now your turn to burn them down
Yeah you goddamn broken people
Spin the table as the flames surround

So see ya
Yeah you goddamn broken people
Yeah you goddamn broken people
Yeah we're goddamn broken people
