

Persephone

Mandragora Scream

Deep inside, it's your dark side
Don't let it lay and don't cry
Noises and sighs, are still alive
From the oracles of time
Deep inside

This time a secret flame
Without a shame
Can kill the illusory creed
Come baby! Run again

My obscure shade is made of lust
And now I claim my bloody tales
Dubious child
Come through the "dark side"
Of this unendin' flow of time

Come to me

Come to the lord of shade
Say you'll be mine
Say you would die for me
You'll never be a slave

It's a night grace
And ancient blaze
That can save your soul from pain

Run to the lord of shade
Say you'll be mine
Say you would die for me
You'll never be a salve
