

Cry 2 My Face

Mansun

It's the final straw
Here's my notice that I quit
Though I'm not quite sure
But I'll take this leap of faith
It's not a waste of time if you enjoy the time you waste
So a wise man said
Though it seemed like yesterday

I feel like I'm almost overcome
Once again
More or less
I feel like I've always known much sooner than later

You can cry 2 my face
And I'll know what you want me to do
You can cry 2 my face
All the world will be hidden from view
You can cry 2 my face
No harm gets through

Such a smoky day
Even saints have to wait
Though I'm not quite sure
As I found out today
Do you feel like it's always on the line
But it feels so good
And it's like this every day!
