

In Silence

Manticora

why do I see you
when you're not there I can't believe the things you said about the stairs

a long climb, a long walk for no reason at all your empty eyes of dying pride forcing you to fall

away - in silence
away - in silence
to stay - in silence
I won't pray

I will remember the smile on your face everytime the sun will shine you will be there again

a long time, centuries
they are killing me I will hold on to my last beliefs to find out that you have gone

away - in silence
away - in silence
to stay - in silence
I won't pray
away - in silence
to stay - in silence
I won't pray
