

Could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?

In my belly
I can hear your song
Tell me a story
If I make it home
Take my money
Spend it all on me
You woke me up from the dead
When I was six feet deep, hey

Why you, why you keep digging my heart out?
Why you, why you keep digging my heart out?
Could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?

I'll be ready
If you ever doubt
Baby, baby
Whether rain or drought
Take your worries
I will understand
You woke me up from the dead
But I don't stand a chance

Why you, why you keep digging my heart out?
Why you, why you keep digging my heart out?
Could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?
Could it-could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?
Could it be the ether?
