

You were the reason
I felt like I believed in the sun
But when it goes down
Tell me will you dream of my love
We can't hold a conversation
Cause I feel my heartbeat racing
I have a feeling
There something your concealing
My star

Cause your preaching to the choir choir liar
Baby I admire admire admire
How you started the fire fire fire
But baby I'm tired tired tired
When your preaching to the choir liar
When your preaching to the choir liar

I drive you crazy but how can I how can I show you love
And words get buried cause they are so contrary
They're not enough
For me
You amuse me with the games
But I don't think I feel like playing
Your act is fading
And so is the love in my heart

Cause your preaching to the choir choir liar
Baby I admire admire
How you started the fire fire fire
But baby I'm tired tired tired
When your preaching to the choir liar
When your preaching to the choir liar

Got lost in the conversation
Cause I had a revelation
Was thinking bout something else
Cause your preaching to the choir choir liar

Cause your preaching to the choir choir liar
Baby I admire admire how you started the fire fire fire
But baby I'm tired tired tired tired
Cause your preaching to the choir choir
Cause your preaching to the choir choir liar
