

Feel Like I Feel

Marcus Collins

Ohh
Now here's a question
Why do you walk away
And I've good and I've reason to stay
I never learned my lesson
Are you lying to me
Are you fool to believe you take me for granted
So much that I can't stand it wish I was strong enough to let with you

I don't know why I feel like I feel
'Cause you're doing me wrong
Turn my back and you're gone, and you're gone
If only I have a heart made it still
'Cause I don't understand why you I feel the way I feel

So tell 'em baby
I'ma feel justified
Is just somebody else on the side
With you it's always maybe Well I know where I stand
And now I'm losing my faith in my man
I could go on but there's too much dementation

I don't know why I feel like I feel
'cause you're doing me wrong
turn my back and you're gone, and you're gone
if only I have a heart made it still
'cause I don't understand why you I feel the way I feel

I gotta get back to my life finally leave this love behind sometimes the truth is so hard to find ohh

I don't know why I feel like I feel
'cause you're doing me wrong
turn my back and you're gone, and you're gone
if only I have a heart made it still
'cause I don't understand why you I feel the way I feel

I don't know why I feel like I feel
'cause you're doing me wrong
turn my back and you're gone, and you're gone
if only I have a heart made it still
'cause I don't understand why you I feel the way I feel
