

Temple of Decay

Marduk

Hills will be deaf and mountains will not hear There be no caves
no corners there
To shade your souls from the fire
To shield your hearts from fear

His W R A T H is upon us
The Flames draw near

And evermore shall you kneel
Before the Altar of Death
Forever damned to the Temple
...of Decay

The skies shall explode and the air itself ignite
But the flames thereof shall bring no light To lead you out from the darkness of this unceasing Night

His W R A T H is upon us and Death we invite

And evermore shall you kneel
Before the Altar of Death
Forever damned to the Temple
...of Decay

And evermore shall you kneel
Before the Altar of Death
Forever damned to the Temple
...of Decay
