

I Don't Want To Be Without You

Margaret Becker

These are the words
I never speak
'Cause they'd embarrass you
But they're haunting me

These are the tears
You never see
They're foolish to you
But they're drowning me

Tell me what is wrong?
What can I do
To make this simple truth
More true to you
I don't want to argue
Hear me with your heart
I don't want to be without you

These are the arms
That ache for you
Frightened to push too hard
Frightened you'll slip right through

This is the joy
I want you to know
You say it's good for me
But, leave you alone
Well, I can't walk away
Won't leave you here
When I am so sure
We could always be near
I know a place
Where we can meet

I don't want to be without you

These are the words
I never speak
'Cause they'd embarrass you
But they keep haunting me

I don't want to be
I don't want to be
I don't want to be
Without you
