

Take Me Away

Margaret Becker

Alone with You I find a cover
Here in my hidden heart
The weight of love is pulling me under
Through the worlds that keep us apart
Life goes on
While I'm retreating
Drawn into this private meeting
Take me away to the heartland
Sheltered in Your love in the palm of Your hand
Face to face in the heartland
Take me away, take me away
To the heartland
In solitude it's there I discover
True love that carries me
In my soul Your power thunders
Gives me all the strength the I need
Want to be here
Every moment
Keep this path of love wide open
