

Has He Got A Friend For Me

Maria McKee

Saturday night and I'm all alone no ring on the doorbell, no ring on the phone and nobody wants to know anyone lonely like me

Your boyfriend's good-looking, he's got it all there looks like God made him with something to spare you look good together scurrying off down the street

Has he got a friend
Has he got a friend for me

has he got a friend
has he got a friend for me

He's got the haunt of the sea in his eyes but he wouldn't notice me passing him by I could be in the gutter or dangling down from a tree

If he knows someone who's graceful and wise and won't mind a girl who is clumsy and shy I wouldn't mind going with someone that I've never seen

Has he got a friend for me
has he got a friend
has he got a friend for me?
