I've Forgotten What It Was In You (That Put The Need In Me)

Maria McKee

You wanna talk about devotion You wanna talk about true love After the moment of emotion It's kinda hard to keep the mood up

Well look into my eyes
And tell me what you see, darling
I've forgotten what it was in you
That put the need in me

Your arms were like a little paradise But your arms have changed And the flicker of a good love's fire Has seen brighter days

When we've said every line
And played out every scene
I've forgotten what it was in you
That put the need in me

Well honey you and I
We had the sweetest thing
And we can try and try and try
But somethin' ain't the same

Don't look me in the eye âDDCause I'm the one to blame I've forgotten what it was in you That put the need in me

Who'd ever thought that I Would have the guts to change We could try to live a lie You'd hate me just the same

Oh, honey please don't cry
I'm sorry and ashamed
But I've forgotten what it was in you
That put the need in me
