

Shelter

Maria McKee

Well all right you gave it all up for a dream
Fate proved unkind
To lock the door and leave no key
You're unsure
Well baby I'm scared too
When the world crushes you

Let me be you're shelter shelter
From the storm outside
Let me be your shelter shelter
From the endless tide

Disillusion has an edge so sharp
It tears at your soul
And leaves a stain upon your heart
I need you to wash mine clean
You've felt it too
And you need me

Let me be you're shelter shelter
From the storm outside
Let me be your shelter shelter
From the endless tide

Your struggle with darkness has left you blind
I'll light the fire in your eyes

Let me be you're shelter shelter
From the storm outside
Let me be your shelter shelter
From the endless tide

Your struggle with darkness has left you blind
I'll light the fire in your eyes

Let me be you're shelter shelter
From the storm outside
Let me be your shelter shelter
From the endless tide

Let me be your shelter shelter shelter shelter shelter
