

2nd Chance

Marie Fredriksson

I think of you every day
Especially this morning of spring
Oh, thank God I'm alive
And I look down on my Sydney ring

How can I tell you enough
That I love you more than ever
Oh, thank God I'm alive
And I know I love you forever

It's a beautiful morning sun
Shining on me for the 2nd time
My red roses are still mine
Shining on me for the 2nd time

I'm gonna take my time
Cannot take anything for granted
Oh, thank God I'm alive
And you're more than I ever wanted

It's a beautiful morning sun
Shining on me for the 2nd time
My red roses are still mine
And they're shining on me for the 2nd time

I think of you every day
Especially this morning of spring
Oh, thank God I'm alive
Oh, thank God I'm alive

Oh, thank God I'm alive
I'm alive for the 2nd time
