

Tomorrow's New Country

Marillion

There are scars in our eyes
From a thousand goodbyes
That was great you can write
But I won't reply

You know we are the Leavers
I'll tell you a secret...
It's better to leave us alone

It's been terrific to know you
But we really can't stay
Tomorrow's new country
Calls us home
...for the day.
