Stare into my Kodak Rome Jack hammer out eyes you never thought you'd see the asphalt cra-cra crack like a black egg shell
Don't ever say I never warned you from the start
Don't ever say I never warned you from the start
You're not a shovel, I'm not your dirt

Is there any way to unswallow my pride
Can I fuck myself down?
Why die you can kill the father, that's lucidity
Your Macbeth confessed Oedipus no longer present tense
Your Macbeth confessed Oedipus no longer present tense

No No No No No Reason
No No No No No Reason
No No No No No Reason

I had enough of this
I had enough of this

I won't regret letting you live even if you forgot what you never saved me from So I say whatever, Oh for never

For for for for for for never
For for for for for for never
For for for for for for never, whatever
