

Goodbye My Love

Marion Raven

It's been a while now since I made up my mind
I have gotten good pretending everything's fine
I miss the oldest and I miss the old him
But nothing will survive the memories just linger in

We used to be so good, but I have changed
I wish I felt different but I'm a strange
Though I never met someone like him before
The problem is that I don't love him anymore

ooooooooh oooooooooh

And I am sure that pretty girls stay in line
Waiting for the moment when his no longer mine
But in this game of his I'll never win
His love an ocean I am drowning in

Goodbye my love
Goodbye my man
This is hard for me to understand
Though I never met someone like him before
The problem is that I don't love him anymore

You can't lie to my
You can't lie to my heart
Oh we were perfect enough, for a single way
But what can I say?

You can't lie to my
You can't lie to my heart
Turns me a part
I don't know where to stop
Goodbye my man, goodbye my love

It's been a while now
Since I made up my mind
I have gotten good pretending everything's fine
