

Never Ask Why

Marion Raven

You didn't see the warning signs
Well-dressed in disguise
Oooo, beware
She fool you once
She fool you twice
And filled your head with lies
Oooo, beware

Let her past
Let her go by
Dancing in the forest at night
Let her past
Let her fly
Just turn around and never ask why

Such beauty you have never seen
This deep you've never been
Oooo, run away
She'll make you leave it all behind
She turns a man into a child
Oooo, run away

Let her past
Let her go by
Dancing in the forest at night
Let her past
Let her fly
Just turn around and never ask why

You didn't see the warning signs
And now you pay the price

Ooo, waiting here
