

Spit You Out

Marion Raven

I know there's something wrong with me, a voice inside my head controls me...
Oh, you took a while to see the light,
what do I gotta' lose except my, pride...

And I said: "Hey"
you spin me around and around,
after all we've said and done,
spit you out...

Yeah, you spin me around and around,
after all we've said and done,
spit you out,
spit you out...

Live or let die or let it be,
but I finally have to disagree...
You took some time to understand,
there's nothing here left to lose except my pride...

And I said: "Hey"
you spin me around and around,
after all we've said and done,
spit you out...

Yeah, you spin me around and around,
after all we've said and done,
spit you out,
spit you out...

Uh... everything seems so perfect,
but was it worth it to you...?
Uh... everything seems so perfect
baby was it worth it to me...?

And I said: "Hey"
you spin me around and around,
after all we've said and done,
spit you out...

Yeah, you spin me around and around,
after all we've said and done,
spit you out,
spit you out...
