

The Beginning of the End

Marion Raven

It started with a fire burning
Now I'm the one who's left to burn
It happened while the tables were turning
I guess I will never learn

When someone made you for the better
It's not that easy to forget
But nothing never last forever
You I won't regret

This game we cannot win
Oh, how the truth will always dim
We knew this time was just for later
It's the beginning of the end I knew would come

But it's the beating of the drum
We knew this love was just pretend
It's the beginning of the end

It started with a silent beating
And I'm the only one to blame
Oh, when you know it is forbidden
You never want to stop
No, you don't want to give it up

And everything we've shared together
The memories we've had were shattered
Yeah, nothing never last forever
And I will never tell
I'm not the one you know so well

Come back to the start
I can't stay apart from you for too long
I'm no good when you're gone
But I can't defend my thoughts anymore cause this is the end

This is the

This game we cannot win
Oh, how the truth will always dim
We knew this time was just for later
It's the beginning of the end I knew would come

But it's the beating of the drum
We knew this love was just pretend
It's the beginning of the end

It's the beginning of the end

It's the beginning of the end
