

Sleep

Marion

what a cliché, I never wanna see you again we're all so cliché, too much spandex on the brain.

If you believe your dreams will come true then sleep is all you'll ever do and if you think I'm gonna come to you then go back to bed, take my friends there too.

In a sense we're exactly the same
we're both so different in every way. x2

Oh it's a shame that I mean to you this way oh it's a crying shame, but what you do is the same, its the same.

Oh someone told me that you really liked me but I fell asleep almost instantly and in my sleep I dreamt that you found me Now I've found my feet so come and run with me.

In a sense we're exactly the same
we're both so different in every way. x2

Sleep..... I go to sleep. x2

Dream, dream, dream for her go one and dream, dream, dream for her. x2
