

Stallions

Marissa Nadler

Mother, the stallions are running wild
Save me your evil thoughts of mine
Lord, I tried my best to save you from your mind
Lord, I tried my best to save you from your mind

Mother, the table's dressed in white
Save me your evil thoughts of mine
I tried my best to save you from your mind
Lord, I tried my best to save you from your mind

Mother, the stallions are running wild
Save me your evil thoughts of time
Lord, I tried my best to save you from your mind
Lord, I tried my best to save you from your mind
