

Dream Lullabye

Mark Lanegan

Such a quiet night
Setting sun
Drops through the clouds
This is everything I need
I hear you whisper in the trees

Now I got a dream of my own
I'm alone and I am free
Yesterday don't matter no more
And a paper pole

Drifts from the shore
Drifts like my dreaming
Weeping willow
I ain't weeping no more

I got a dream
I got a dream
Now I got a dream of my own
No crying for what's been lost
Yesterday don't matter no more

Can't stop my dreamin'
Can't stop my dreamin'
Can't stop dreamin' no more
Oh
