

She's Gone

Mark Lanegan

She's gone
My love is gone

Flowers shouldn't bloom in spring
Why don't birds refuse to sing
Sunbeams shouldn't bring the dawn
She is gone, my Love is gone

Mountains shouldn't stand so tall
Summer shouldn't turn to fall
How can anything go on
She is gone

They saw my darling slipping silently away
Her restless spirit took her love from me one day
Everything in life should change
Don't they know it's not the same
Can't they feel that something's wrong
She is gone

She's gone
My love is gone