

To Valencia Courthouse

Mark Lanegan

Good thing have you gone away
Leaving those tears to dry
All good things got to go that way
Though I can't say why

But the rippling breeze
Magic mountains and all
Make for a beautiful day

You can open up the iron gates
You can get my mind to change a mood
And lately I have learned some things
From being distracted by you

Another go around the block
Another telephone call

Gone is the satellite, the one true believer
Gone is my broken ballerina
Remember the times that you had taken over
Bathed in a radiant lover's light

'Til another day

Good thing have you gone away
Leaving those tears to dry
I know it goes that way
Though I can't say why

And I can't stand luck to fall
And I don't need nothing at all
It's a beautiful day
