

They Do

Mark Owen

Love yourself if you want
Cry a bit
Laugh a lot
Throw a stone
Take a plane
Start again
Give yourself a chance not a nosebleed
Have a course
Meet your friends
Visit space... visit space
Say hello to someone
For the road you need one
Choose a song
So that your heart can sing
Is it how it is?
How you make it?
No one knows everything
And if you're wondering
Do the years fly by too soon?
They do
And if you're wondering
If the skies look down?
It's true,
They do.
They all look out for you.
Make yourself
Cry a dream
Get a job
Learn to drive
Kiss your girl
On the mind
When you can Find the one you love
Who you walk side by side
You might live in a house
You may fall out
But you might watch your children grow
And if you're wondering
Do the years fly by too soon?
They do
And if you're wondering
Do the skies look down?
It's true
They do.
They all look out for all look out for you
when you lose your way
when all that you know turn on you
when they let you down
love is a ...to do
when you lose your way
when all that you know turn on you
when they let you down
love is a ...to do
