

Ace Of Hearts

Mark Wills

Love's a gamble every heart will take
You roll the dice in hopes that it won't break
And one night I bet on your blue eyes and took a chance
And I won a whole lot more than one night of romance

I held the ace of hearts, that night in the dark
How lucky can one man be
And I hold the winning hand anyway life deals the cards
No way to lose 'cause I've got you my ace of hearts

Love's a numbered wheel you have to spin
There's no need for me to spin again
Because lovin' you is paying off more than I knew
I took a little risk, Lord and hit it big with you

I held the ace of hearts, that night in the dark
And how lucky can one man be
And I hold the winning hand anyway life deals the cards
No way to lose 'cause I've got you my ace of hearts

I held the ace of hearts, that night in the dark
And how lucky can one man be
And I hold the winning hand anyway life deals the cards
No way to lose 'cause I've got you my ace of hearts

Oh, now I've got you
My ace of hearts
