

Wait for Me Mary Anne

Marmalade

Hey!

There's a small town lyin' by the river
Halfway to nowhere
Where the trains just stop to take on water
But my girl, she lives there

She ain't, got jewels, she don't, have money
But she makes my whole world sunny
Wears, no make-up, on her face
But where she is, well that's my place
And I'm going home to my girl

Wait for me Mary-Anne
Please stay free Mary-Anne
I'm comin' home girl, just as soon as I can (my my my Mary-Anne)
Wait for me Mary-Anne
You will see Mary-Anne
With I was born, to be your true lovin' man (my my my Mary-Anne)

In the city life gets awful lonely
For a boy making good
And it's hard to keep your sense of values
And to do things you should

Girls, come easy, try, to make you
Just as soon they'll try to break you
When, the city, fills, my eyes
Then I remember summer skies
Then dream of the place I belong

Wait for me Mary-Anne
Please stay free Mary-Anne
I'm comin' home girl, just as soon as I can (my my my Mary-Anne)
Wait for me Mary-Anne
You will see Mary-Anne
That I was born to be your true lovin' man (my my my Mary-Anne)

Wait for me Mary-Anne (my my my Mary-Anne)
Please stay free Mary-Anne (my my my Mary-Anne)
I'm comin' home girl just as soon as I can (my my my Mary-Anne)
Wait for me...
