

Hello Goodbye

Marsha Ambrosius

Sorry
(Ooh-ooh)

Can't believe that we have come so far
To become who we are
Together we were one
And now apart
Feel you're missing me in your heart
'Cause I know tried
So hello goodbye

I know I wanna turn the hands of time
But what is left behind
Are the memories of you and I
And though it hurts
Still I can't find a way to smile (Way to smile)
'Cause I know tried

I promised I wouldn't cry, oh baby
I know I'm gon' be alright, oh baby
Just send my regards to the stars
Say hi to the sky as you fly away
I promised I wouldn't cry, oh baby
I know I'm gon' be alright, oh baby
'Cause I know without me you're done
But you need to go on so goodbye baby
Hello goodbye

Yes I meant every word I said
But do you even see
We're going in different directions instead
It wasn't a lie
When I said I need you to survive
But I know we tried
So hello goodbye

Now let me make one thing absolutely clear
If I had my way
I would still want you standing right here
Oh, but I accept that things have changed
And we chose to go our separate ways, oh no
And it's so hard I can't lie

But I promised I wouldn't cry, oh baby, baby
I know I'm gon' be alright, oh baby
Just send my regards to the stars
Say hi to the sky as you fly away, yeah
I promised I wouldn't cry, oh baby, hey baby
I know I'm gon' be alright, oh baby, baby
'Cause I know without you I'm done
But I need to go on so goodbye baby

Hello goodbye
Oh
(Hello goodbye)
Mmm
Ooh, ooh

(Hey, hey)
Na-na-na-na
(Hey, hey)
Let the angels fly baby
Ooh
Na-Na-Na-Na
Ooh
Maybe we were meant to be
Ooh it ain't easy
