

One More Reason

Marshall Crenshaw

Late night listening to
A sad song on the radio
And my mind runs back
Over dreams died long ago

I'm reminded again that hearts cry
Love leaves with no goodbye
And it's one more reason to cry

So I take a walk outside
Down streets that suggest to me
Nothing more or less
Than a world full of misery

I'm reminded again that worlds die
Love leaves with no goodbye
And it's one more reason to cry

Where did she stay last night
I've really got to know somehow
And another thing
Could that be where she is right now?

I'm reminded again that worlds die
Love leaves with no goodbye
And it's one more reason to cry

Late night listening to
A sad song on the radio
And my mind runs back
Over dreams died long ago

I'm reminded again that hearts cry
Love leaves with no goodbye
And it's one more reason to cry
