I held you in my Castle In The Sky.

Then from another world a stranger came one day

I begged you not to leave, but you left any- way

With mem'ries of My Castle In The Sky.

The trouble that we're havin', does it mean there's someone new Or am I just bothered by the thought of losing you Will someone come and take you, will I lose you by and by Like I lost you in my Castle In The Sky.

If we should ever part, the world for me would end How could I tell my heart, I only lost a friend Be faithful, don't forsake me, never leave and say goodbye Like you left me in my Castle In The Sky.
