I'm Gonna Miss You When You Go

Marty Robbins

I'm gonna miss you when you go more than you will ever know
I'm gonna miss the sunshine of your smile
And when the train pulls down the track I'll be wishing you'd c ome back
Because my heart will be with you each passing mile

And if the trail you're ridin' ever has an end
Turn around and ride right back to me again
Just like the moon would miss its glow that's the only way I kn ow
To show how much I'm gonna miss you when you go [guitar]
And if the trail you're ridin' ever has an end...
