

I Wanna Go To The Sun

Marvelous 3

The clock is tick tick ticking away
She got a new pair of shades that she bought when she went shopping
Only 27 hours away
From skipping rope on a star, she's drinking gin with Janis Joplin

The earth is just starting to bore me
And all the people out there just adore me, yeah

I wanna go to the sun
(Somebody take me there)
That's where the living is fun
(And I won't get no evil stares)
I wanna go to the sun
(Somebody take me there, there)

She stole a class cutting pass today
And she can fake a teacher's signature like nobody can
I bet you'll never guess what she's gonna say
That I'm the captain of the rocket and you're the 2nd in command

The earth is just starting to bore me
And all the people out there just adore me, yeah

I wanna go to the sun
(Somebody take me there)
That's where the living is fun
(And I won't get no evil stares)
I wanna go to the sun
(Somebody take me there, there, there, there)

Well the earth is just starting to bore me
And all the people out there just adore me, yeah

I wanna go to the sun
(Somebody take me there)
That's where the living is fun
(And I won't get no evil stares)
I wanna go to the sun
(Somebody take me there, there, there, there)
(There, there, there, there, there)
