

I'm Going Home

Marvin Gaye

I'm going home
See my mother
I'm going home
To see my dear old dad
I'm going home
To be with my sister
I'm going home
Won't my brother be glad?
Going home, yeah
Going to look out the window
I'm going home
To see what I saw in the past
I'm going home
Where somebody love me
I'm going home
Though I might be in rags

Been so long since
I began to roam
Never should have left home
Thought I was grown
But now I see what it meant to me

I'm going home
See my mother
I'm going home
To be with your old dad
I'm going home
To be with my sister
I'm going home
Won't my brother be glad?
Going home
Look out the window
Going home
Do I see what I saw in the past?
I'm going home
Where somebody love me
Going home
Won't my mama be glad?

It's been so long
Since I began to roam
Thought I'd make it on my own
All I wanna do is go home

Going home
See you mama
Going home
This whole world's treated me bad
Going home, daddy
Put my arm around you
Going home
Ah, I won't be sad
Going home
I've cried these teardrops
I'm going home
I don't know where to roam

Going home
I, I need
Going home
Won't I, won't I be glad
I'm going home
Where the sunshine is
I'm going home
There are no clouds, gray
Going home
See my old buddy
I'm going home
Shake my friends hands today

Whoa it's been so long
Since I began to roam
Thought I could make it on my own
But I now see, gotta go back

Going home
See my mother
Going home
To be with my dear dad
Going home
To see my sisters
Going home
Won't my brother be glad?
Going home
To see my mother
Going home
Kiss my dear old dad
Going home
See my sister, yeah
Going home
Won't my brother be glad?

Going home
Going home
Going home
Going home
