

Golden Mile

Mary Black

Walkin' along golden mile with a soldier's twirl
I must be the luckiest soul in the whole wide world
Oh foolish thing, here I go again

There's no faith more innocent than blind faith, and that's all I've got
So I'm scaling the walls of my dreams, ready or not
Oh foolish thing, here I go again

Don't be afraid, darling,
No need to be afraid, darling
You don't have to be afraid from now on
It's just the way, darling,
We get delayed, darling
But we won't be delayed from now on

I know no power on earth nor up above
That would alter the way things are, you are my love
Yes, you're my pride and joy on the golden mile

If only it could be captured how I feel for you
And if I could just freeze it, I feel I'd never be untrue
Oh foolish thing, here I go
Here I go again

Don't be afraid, darling,
No need to be afraid, darling
You don't have to be afraid from now on
It's just the way, darling,
We get delayed, darling
But we won't be delayed from now on

I know no power on earth nor up above
That would alter the way things are, you are my love
You're my pride and joy, my pride and joy
Yes, you're my pride and joy on the golden mile

Walkin' along golden mile with a soldier's twirl
