The Loving Time

Mary Black

It reads like a fairytale, and that's what it was Young man in his prime, young girl from the cross The most perfect of strangers, and then the night closed in And the holy ground took care of everything

Now she was a fine one, and he was a handsome man One look was enough, and away they ran They spent many happy hours and then the night closed in And the holy ground took care of everything

Oh what's the use in complaining? In for a penny, in for a pound I remember the loving time And nothing else really counts

And I recall the promise they made With a faith I can but admire That she'd be the one he adored And he'd be her heart's desire

It didn't come true in the end, they went their separate ways He couldn't change what he was, she wasn't ready to wait They couldn't live in the daylight, they let the night close in And the holy ground took care of everything

They couldn't live in the daylight, they let the night close in And the holy ground took care of everything They couldn't live in the daylight, they let the night close in And the holy ground took care of everything

I remember the loving time And nothing else really counts
