

Life Begins Again

Mary Hopkin

Where are you goin' to?
Where I cannot find you, oo-hoo
Whoa, how many times you tried to take me with you
Oh, I will not follow
All those places, your dark and lonely ways
I'll just wait on here a while
'Til you find your way home again

Life begins up
Life begins again
Life begins up
Life begins again

And the life you left behind
Where's the dream you hope to find?
Here in the light you lose your way
There in the dark you hide away
Before you slip away again

Oh, oh-oh

Where are you going to?
Where I cannot find you, oo-hoo
Oh, oh, I know
I know you wanna take me with you
But I will not follow you
All those places, your dark and lonely ways
I'll just wait on here a while
'Til you find your way home again

Life begins up
Life begins again
Life begins up
Life begins again

Life begins up
Life begins again
Life begins up
Life begins again

Life begins up
Life begins again
Life begins up
Life begins again
