

Evidence Of Abominations

Massacra

(Lyrics : Greg Conan / Chris Palengat)
Reality is more cruel than fiction
It is beyond all imagination
Hate is a reality
And violence a sin
Don't run in the face of the enemy
Because it comes from within
Don't pass over it silence
Cause it's a matter of consciousness
War is a reality
And torture a friend
Our lyrics are pleasant
Compared to the end
Evidence of abominations
Open your eyes
It's an actual fact
Existence of abominations
Don't close your eyes
It's time to react
Indifference is your excuse
And ignorance your refuge
The face of the evidence
Is as sad as your true
